The Private Concierge CV

A refined template, ready to make your own.

This is a proven structure for a private-service CV. Replace the guidance in italics with your own details. Keep it to one page, elegant and uncluttered, the document itself should feel discreet and considered.

[YOUR FULL NAME]

Private Concierge · Lifestyle Manager

City, Country · email@example.com · +00 000 000 000 · Available worldwide

Profile

Two or three lines that capture who you are and the discretion you bring. Example: A composed and highly discreet private concierge with a natural instinct for anticipation, dedicated to protecting the time, peace, and privacy of the principals I serve.

Core Competencies

- Discretion & confidentiality
- Anticipation of needs
- Event & reservation sourcing
- Travel & itinerary management
- Vendor & staff coordination
- Household & lifestyle management

Experience

[Role Title] · [Principal / Household / Agency] · [Dates]

Two or three bullet points describing what you protected and achieved, not just tasks. Focus on trust earned and problems prevented.

[Role Title] · [Principal / Household / Agency] · [Dates]

Keep the most impressive and relevant first. Quantify discreetly where you can (properties managed, size of staff coordinated, years of tenure).

Education & Training

Maison Amarine · The Luxury Concierge Academy · Certificate of Completion

[Any additional relevant training, languages, certifications.]

Languages & Notes

Languages spoken, willingness to travel or relocate, driving licence, right to work. Discretion is assumed, never state confidentiality details of past principals.

A quiet note on discretion: never name your principals or reveal private details. “A prominent international family” is always more impressive, and more trusted, than a name.
