HOW TO STUDY THIS MODULE

This is the document that will actually get you into rooms, and it is the last deliverable before the final week.

The templates are in your Vault. This is where you fill them, honestly, and send them to me.

I will read it as an employer, not as a teacher. That is the only way it is useful to you.

CHAPTER I

What you are producing

A complete candidacy, ready to send on Monday

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Understand what complete means.

Most candidates have a CV. That is not a candidacy, and the gap between the two is the reason a great many capable people are never called back.

A candidacy is complete when a busy person can check you in four minutes and find nothing that worries them. That is the standard, and it is the only one.

CHAPTER II

The seven pieces

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Assemble each one.

Piece	Notes
1 · The CV	Two pages. Rebuilt from nothing this week. Zero adjectives, scope not duties, no family named.
2 · The letter	One page, four paragraphs, and the difficult thing addressed by you in paragraph three, in one sentence, without apology.
3 · The reference sheet	Three referees, called this week, briefed, and none of them hesitating. Held separately, given when asked, never attached to a circulating document.
4 · Certificates	First aid, driving, languages, training. Scanned, legible, current. Get the first aid certificate if you do not have it. It costs a weekend.
5 · Work authorisation	Stated plainly and early. Never let an employer discover a visa problem at the offer stage.
6 · The confidentiality statement	One paragraph, in your own words. Chapter III below, and it is the piece nobody else will have.
7 · Your code of conduct	From Week 3. Optional, and I have never seen a candidate produce one, and I have never met an employer who would not want to read it.

CHAPTER III

The confidentiality statement

The one page nobody else will send

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Write the paragraph that answers the only real question.

A household is trying to answer one question about you, and no certificate on earth answers it: is this person safe?

So answer it. One paragraph, in your own words, on how you actually handle information. Not a promise, which anyone can make. A method, which almost nobody can describe, and which is instantly recognisable as real.

- How you classify information, and what never travels.
- What you do with a device, a record, a photograph, a message.
- What you have already declined to say, and to whom, and the fact that you are still not saying it.
- And, if it applies to you: that there is a family you have worked for whose name you have not written on any document, and never will, and that this is the reason they should consider you rather than a reason to hesitate.

Six or seven lines. Not a page. And read it aloud before you send it, because if it sounds like marketing, it is marketing, and they will hear that instantly and it will do you damage.

CHAPTER IV

How it will be judged

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Understand the standard.

What I am looking forWhat that means

Verifiability	Every claim checkable. I will pick two lines at random and ask you to prove them, exactly as a family office would, and without warmth.
Restraint	No adjectives, no design, no personal brand. Two pages, one page, one paragraph.
The rung	Consistent with your Week 6 plan. If your candidacy targets a rung above the one you named, one of the two documents is dishonest, and we will find out which.
The referees	Called. If you have not called them, do not submit, and tell me so, and we will do it together.
The confidentiality statement	Method, not promise. This is the piece I will read first, and it is the piece that will get you hired.

CHAPTER V

Submission

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Submit correctly.

One PDF. In order. Submitted before your session, with the filmed interview and the completed offer exercise.

And then send it. To one of the agencies from your Week 6 map, on the Monday after your session, before it is perfect, because it will never be perfect and the waiting is not preparation.

The candidacy that is still being improved in October is the candidacy of someone who has decided, without admitting it, not to go.

HOW TO SUBMIT, AND HOW TO BOOK YOUR SESSION

1. Submit. Everything you produced this week goes into the Submit area of Module 4, inside your student portal. One PDF. Not by email, and not in the chat.
2. Book. The moment your work is uploaded, a Book your session button appears in that same place. Click it and choose your slot with me. Do it straight away, while you are there, because the slots for each week are limited and they are taken in the order they are booked.
3. Leave me time. Book your session for at least two days after your submission, so that I can read your work properly beforehand. That way the session is spent on the correction rather than on the reading, and you get every minute of it.
